OUR GULLIBLE KEYSTONES.

It is noticeable that the other bosses in the Republican machine are not going to sulk over President Harding's refusal to give Boss Tope Hertz a Cabinet position and there's a scramble on to land a Federal job from Ches Seary down to the colored brother who wants to be janitor at the Custom House. Republican employees of the Morrow administration and employees of the local administration see the handwriting on the wall and are trying to land Federal jobs which run for four years more. State Republican officeholders who saw Morrow's majority wiped out in one year know that by 1923 "Howdy Ed's" reign will mean a landslide for Kentucky Democracy. Speaking of "Howdy Ed" and the controversy with the Versailles officials the Paris Democrat says that it will be to take Judge Mulenby's end, as he was never charged with being a craps shooter, nor was there a warrant issued for him on a gambling charge by the County Judge of Bourbon.

But right here in Louisville is where the proverbial "cold feet" has struck the Republican office-holders, who realize that the Smith "reform" reign is marked for a stinging defeat by the voters in November. Boss Ches Seary would like to be Commissioner of Internal Revenue officeholders who saw Morrow's majority wiped out in one year know that by 1923 "Howdy Ed's" reign will mean a landslide for Kentucky Democracy. HONORED ST. PATRICK.

St. Patrick's day was observed in Louisville in a manner that reflected great credit on the Americans of Irish blood. The day dawned bright and clear, and early the children of St. Patrick and their friends were seen everywhere wearing hats of green. Impressive services were held in many of the churches, those at St. Patrick's church being marked with unusual devotion. Low mass was said in the morning and at 9 o'clock solemn high mass was celebrated by the Rev. James P. Cronin, V. G., the pastor, assisted by Rev. Father Melody as deacon and Rev. Father Hill as subdeacon. Rev. Francis Martin acting as master of ceremonies. In the sanctuary also were Father Bernard Doherty and Father James Willett. The decorations were very appropriate, palms with ferns and white carnations being used to decorate the altars, which were ablaze with golden lights. The music was very devotional and fully in keeping with the solemn occasion, which concluded with Irish airs effectively rendered as the large congregation was leaving the church. Francis Martin, of St. Patrick's, delivered the sermon of the day and added much to his reputation as a pulpit orator. His discourse was marked by sincerity of expression, patriotism and sympathy. Loyalty to America as well as to Ireland, love for the Emerald Isle were shown in his outspoken sentiment and praise for St. Patrick. From start to finish Father Martin held his listeners in rapt attention. Here the day's celebration was concluded by a sacred concert and address by the Rev. John O'Connor, of Holy Name church, the proceeds of which helped swell Louisville's contribution for the suffering people of Ireland.

At the Church of Our Lady the Rev. Martin O'Connor celebrated the high mass in the morning, and in the evening there was a solemn but brilliant service, with an imposing procession by the parish societies and a special musical program. Rev. Father Flerty, O. P., of St. Louis Bertrand's, delivered an eloquent panegyric on St. Patrick, which was followed by benediction and blessing with the relic of Ireland's apostle. Here also a handsome sum was realized for the Irish relief fund.

Under the auspices of Division 4, A. O. H., a great audience assembled at Bertrand Hall, where a splendid entertainment was given for the benefit of the sufferers in Ireland. Each number was well received. Everybody present was on the verge of the awarding of the victrola and announcement of the winner in the popularity contest. The victrola went to John McGuire, South Fourth street, and Miss Nellie Langan was awarded the prize in the popularity voting contest, her total being over 30,000. The Asambra celebrated with a celebration at Knights of Columbus Hall, followed by an Irish dinner and musical and literary exercises that were much enjoyed.

The descendants of Erin have every reason to congratulate themselves over this year's observance in honor of the Apostle of Ireland. "Shaun Aroon," which was given by St. Augustine's Dramatic Club on St. Patrick's night in Jeffersonville, scored a big hit. Mrs. Margaret Constantine, as leading lady, displaying unusual theatrical ability and her solos were heartily enjoyed. Others in the cast who were well received were Pat King, Joe Burke, Audrian Kennedy and Eileen Carrigan. The play was directed by Rev. Father Sullivan.

K. OF C.

Pilgrimage Next Month Will Constitute Great Religious Event of the Year.

Ten Thousand Will Visit the Shrine of St. Joseph Near Montreal.

Supreme Secretary McGinley Makes First Report on Americanization Work.

FOILED IN TACTLESS EFFORT.

One of the largest pilgrimages ever held in North America will take place on Sunday, April 17, when 10,000 Knights of Columbus, many of them from the United States and cities of Canada, will visit the Crypt of St. Joseph on Cote-de-Nelges, Montreal, and the venerable Frere Andre, sacristan of the shrine, known throughout the Dominion from Acadia to the Yukon as the miracle man of Canada. Frere Andre, who is credited with having performed hundreds of miracles by devout pilgrims, is seventy-six years old. His civil name is Bessette and he entered the seminary as a lay brother with duties as porter. He carried on special devotions to St. Joseph, and his infectiousness was soon reported effective. From the original hut of St. Joseph on the hill a magnificent white stone shrine has grown. Inside of this shrine clusters of crutches, trusses, etc., bear witness to physical cures. The K. of C. pilgrimage to 10,000 to the shrine of St. Joseph and Frere Andre on April 17 will constitute one of the great religious events of the year. The first Americanization report of the Knights of Columbus, issued by Supreme Secretary William J. McGinley, shows that the K. of C. have spent more than $500,000 in what is known as Americanization work. "This work," the report reads, "has taken the form of the study of English and American laws and customs in the chain of vocational schools operated by the Knights of Columbus throughout the country. We have had approximately 50,000 men and women take up these courses, the principal part of which is the American constitution. Our experience is that Americanization is not only an unwelcome term to those who seek to study the matters it embraces, it is also an insufficient term, that has been and is much abused by so-called uplift agencies. We have found hundreds of young men, American-born for generations, who were ready to admit and eager to supply their lack of knowledge of American institutions and the rights and duties of citizenship. At the same time we know that thousands of the foreign-born who are most in need of training in American citizenship are repelled by the tactless efforts of uplifters to reach them. This has been especially the case with the military and naval forces who proved by their service in November, or early in 1922, it is called Americanization work, which we prefer to call citizenship study. It is fatal to the objective to make the curriculum stiff and hide-bound. Each individual case must be studied, especially as different national groups must have their various traditions modified and adapted to American ideals and practices. In expending approximately $500,000 for books and tuition in free citizenship courses in the 132 K. of C. schools, and in supplementing this by extra mural work through open forums in scores of communities, we feel that the Knights of Columbus have found a way to inculcate genuine Americanism, which comprises also the training for a livelihood, as distinct from the hysterical attempts to convert patriotism into the minds of those who must understand it before they can practice it.

The K. of C., the report stated, would at a meeting of officers to be held in New York, make provision for further citizenship courses in their schools.

DEATH A SHOCK.

Mrs. Katie E. Barry, fifty years old, beloved wife of John J. Barry, former City Wharfmaster, was the victim of a sudden death Tuesday afternoon, and news of her death was a great shock to her wide circle of friends, throughout the city, by whom she was held in highest esteem. Mrs. Barry complained of an excessive soreness in the jaws after having her teeth extracted last week. She was taken to St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital from her home, 1139 South Brook street, but treatment failed to relieve her. Hope was abandoned Tuesday morning. Mrs. Barry formerly was Miss Katie E. Enright, and had a wide acquaintance and circle of friends here, acquired through her activity in church and charitable work. Bright and cheerful in disposition, she made and kept friends, who were ever ready to assist her in any of her charitable undertakings. Beside her husband she is survived by a brother, Dennis Enright, Jersey City. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at St. Mary Magdalene church, which was filled by sorrowing friends. For the bereaved husband there is sincere sympathy.

EASTER SOCIAL.

The congregation of St. Frances of Rome church will entertain with a social at Trinity Council Hall, Baxter and Morton avenues, next Tuesday afternoon and evening, with lunch and refreshments served. The proceeds derived will be used for the church building fund, and as this is a worthy cause many should take this opportunity to aid and spend an enjoyable evening at the same time. One is sure of a hospitable welcome from Rev. Father Riley, the pastor, and his reception committee.

FROM ROME.

Monsignor Edward P. Allen, Bishop of Mobile, Ala., who remained in Rome after the recent consistory, at the request of Pope Benedict to take part in the ceremonies incident to Cardinal Dougherty's taking possession of his titular church, left Rome Tuesday for the United States. Monsignor O'Hern, rector of the American College, and Monsignor Mahoney, spiritual director of the college, had him farewell at the station. Monsignor Allen will sail for New York aboard the steamer Mauretania. Monsignor Giovanni Bonzano, Apostolic Delegate in the United States, will be created a Cardinal in the consistory in November, or early in 1922, it is stated.

GOLDEN JUBILEE.

St. Patrick's day was indeed a day of rejoicing at the Sacred Heart Home of the Sisters of Mercy on College street, when Sister Mary Bridget O'Malley celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of her religious life in the order of the Sisters of Mercy, which was founded in Ireland. The jubilee high mass was celebrated in the chapel of Our Lady of Dolours by the Rev. Father Ignatius Wilkens, O. F. M., while the Rev. Father P. M. J. Rock, rector of the Cathedral, preached a most eloquent and happy sermon, the religious services closing with benediction. Relatives and friends of Sister Mary Bridget were present to give thanks and tender congratulations. During the day the jubilarian was the recipient of many messages of congratulation and good will.

ORGANIZE AT FLORENCE.

The American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic organized a branch at Florence on Wednesday evening of last week, to be known as the Daniel Boone Council. The following officers were elected: J. T. Crowley, President; John Murphy, Vice President; Mrs. George E. Baers, Secretary; Michael J. Knaley, Rev. Gerald Connolly and Owen Bradford, Trustees. The first meeting will be held on April 4. James J. Grogan of Cincinnati, and Frederick Schmitz, of Covington, were the speakers. A large gathering was present, many coming from Covington and Newport.

MACKIN SOCIAL CLUB.

Mackin Council Social Club will give its Easter reception and dance Monday night at the club house, 344 North Twenty-sixth street. This club, organized fourteen years ago, has now eighty members and attends largely to the social activities of the West End. Its affairs have been of the highest order, and this winter the attendance has increased to such an extent that Mackin Council will doubtless enlarge and redecorate its auditorium during the coming summer.

SUSTAINS DOUBLE FRACTURE.

The many friends of Mrs. R. E. King, 428 North Twenty-eighth street, were greatly distressed to learn that she sustained a double fracture of her left arm Friday night. Returning to her home after spending the evening with her niece, Mrs. King fell on the stairway, sustaining a severe shock. She was removed to St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, where the injured arm was set by Drs. Casper and Dwyer. Mrs. King is again at home, but it will be some time before she can again use her arm.

BISHOP FOR WICHITA.

The Right Rev. Mgr. August J. Schwertner, Chancellor of the Toledo diocese, just appointed Bishop of Wichita, to succeed the late Bishop Hennessy, was born at Canton, Ohio, in 1870, and attended St. Peter's parochial school and the Canton High School. After graduating at St. Canisius College, Buffalo, N. Y., he entered St. Mary's Seminary at Cleveland, in 1891, and was ordained in the City of the late Bishop Horstmann in June, 1897.

EASTER MONDAY SOCIAL.

St. Ann's Guild, a new organization of the young ladies and men of St. Ann's church, made great preparation for an Easter social to be held in the parish hall Monday night next. Lunch will be served from 5 o'clock until 8, with the usual attractions taking place from 8:30 and 8:30. A hearty invitation is extended to all friends of St. Ann's and a good time is assured all who attend. Take Sixth street cars to end of line.

ELECTED CAPTAIN.

At a meeting of the St. Xavier's basketball team Louis Gerardin, star guard of the Green and Gold aggregation, was chosen captain of the 1921-22 team. The following players also received sweaters and letters: Raymond, Gerardin, Steierle, Klefer, Richardson, Hannan, Schaefer and Smith. Curran and Bohmer, managers during the season, also received letters.

SYMPATHY FOR IRELAND.

Roman sympathizers of the Irish cause packed the Elysee Theater in Rome on Monday night of last week to hear speeches by numerous prominent Italians favoring the freedom of Ireland. The theater was decorated with the Italian and Irish flags. The President of the university circle read a list of prominent Italians who were in sympathy with Ireland, among which was Under Secretary of State Bertone.

CONSECRATION.

Bishop Thomas F. Lillis, of the Kansas City diocese, will consecrate Monsignor Francis Ties as Bishop of Concordia in the Kansas City Cathedral on Wednesday morning, March 30. He will be assisted by Bishop James Muldoon, of Rockford, and by Bishop J. Henry Tibben, of Denver. Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, will deliver the sermon.

THOMAS MILEY PASSES.

Thomas Miley, ninety years old, died at the home of his son, Charles Miley, near Augusta, Bracken county, of paralysis. He was a native of Dublin, Ireland, coming to Bracken county when he was sixteen years old. His wife, one year younger, to whom he was married almost seventy-three years ago, survives him, together with four sons.

GENEROUS

Response and Large Contributions Made to Aid of Sufferers in Ireland.

Louisville Relief Association Forwarded its First Installment Monday.

Every Cent Collected Will Be Sent For Immediate Relief.

WILL CONTINUE NEXT WEEK.

St. Patrick's day was very appropriately selected as the opening day for a nation-wide drive for funds for the relief of the suffering women and children in Ireland. Reports from committees in Louisville and the principal cities of the United States indicate that elaborate preparations had been made for this great work of charity and that the people everywhere throughout the country manifested intense enthusiasm in the campaign which the American Committee for Relief in Ireland organized.

In many cities, even before the collection had been formally commenced, large sums had been contributed for the aid of the sufferers in Ireland. The National Committee having charge of the fund announced that all the expenses of the collections will be defrayed by a syndicate of American citizens and that every cent of the amount collected will be forwarded to Ireland.

At a meeting of the Louisville American Relief Association held at the Seelbach Hotel on March 21, presided over by Chairman Owen Sullivan, the Finance Committee forwarded $13,000 to J. J. Puley, National Treasurer, New York City, with instructions to send to Ireland for immediate relief. The distribution of the fund is in charge of C. J. France, brother of United States Senator France, of Maryland, and James Douglas, of the Society of Friends (Quakers), to be disbursed to the needy regardless of creed. The campaign continues until March 31, when the balance will be forwarded. As the Kentucky Irish American predicted, Louisville and Kentucky will go over the top, as it has done in all other like drives. Many people and parishes have yet to be heard from, and therefore Rev. J. O'Connor, the Treasurer, will be unable to make a full report until next week.

The reputation of the people of Louisville for generosity when applied to for charity or to help those in distress is proverbial, and the noble manner in which they are responding to the call for funds to avert starvation and suffering of the women and children of sorely afflicted Ireland is in full keeping with their past record. Unofficial reports would indicate that the Cathedral and parish church collections will exceed $20,000 each, closely followed by Holy Name parish, St. Louis Bertrand's and Sacred Heart. Generous collections were also received from the people of St. Mary's congregation, St. Mary Magdalene, St. Anthony, Holy Cross, St. Francis of Rome, as well as from nearly every parish in the diocese.

Shelbyville also came to the front with $327, of which $115 was a special collection taken up by Rev. Father Scott. Shelbyville is due to John M. Casey and M. O'Sullivan, editor of the Shelby Sentinel, who succeeded in raising an additional $212, their work being largely among their non-Catholic friends. All will agree they did well and the result was indeed very good for Shelbyville and its people.

Chairman Owen Sullivan has received copies of numerous telegrams sent National Director J. F. Lacey, Major Eugene F. Kinkadee, Chairman of the New Jersey State Committee, announcing the sending of a gift of $1,000 by Jersey City Chapter of the American Red Cross to his committee, accompanied by the following communication from George G. Tennant, Chairman of said chapter: "Jersey City Chapter of the American Red Cross sends to the distressed which exists in Ireland, a distress in accordance with its established policy to assist in relieving the same. We had no present means of acting directly and recognizing that your committee is in the field and able to serve we are glad to have you act for us. Enclosed herewith you will please find our check for $1,000, a contribution for this purpose."

Hon. Henry Watterson sent the following telegram from Galveston on St. Patrick's day: "Touching the proposed organization for the relief of Ireland, if my name be of any use, it is at your service." Hon. Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, sent the following characteristic response: "On my return find telegram, March 13, requesting use of my name as Honorary Vice Chairman National Committee for Relief in Ireland. Accept with pleasure. Consider it an honor and a duty to aid this humane cause."

Major General Leonard Wood, just leaving for the Philippines, could not take any notice part, but sent assurance that the movement had his sympathy and wishing the largest possible measure of success to this worthy effort.

CARDINAL GIBBONS.

The venerable and beloved Cardinal Gibbons was released from earthly suffering Thursday forenoon, and upon all sides the sad news was received with expressions of sincere regret. The Church, the country, Catholics and Protestants, all feel they have sustained an almost irreparable loss. May his soul rest in peace and angels receive him into God's heavenly abode.

EASTER.

May this be a bright and happy Easter and bring blessings to all, and may Christian peace soon prevail throughout the world.

WON'T YOU HELP?

If every regular subscriber to this paper will prevail upon his neighbor who is not a reader to become one at once, he will be doing what is expected of him during this month of March, which is Catholic press month. In some places the desire to get behind the Catholic press has had remarkable results. In Baltimore, in San Francisco, in Seattle and in Chicago the campaign is being carried on with greatest enthusiasm. Let the enthusiasm be universal throughout the country.

GIVE! GIVE!

Not only will the women and orphans of Ireland be fed and nourished, but many of the little cottages and homes will be rebuilt. So give to the distressed people that are sorely afflicted. Give gladly, give generously. In expressing his approval Herbert Hoover says: "I am glad to see that you have undertaken the direction of the fund for relief of suffering Ireland. I have never believed that race, religion or politics should enter upon the question of alleviation of human misery. Your self-sacrificing and efficient work as my associate in the administration of the commission for relief in Belgium, assures me that the work you have undertaken will be efficiently and economically carried out." He also wired the committee that he "could not fail to wish every support to such an effort to relieve human suffering" and expressed the hope that the committee would receive the support of every community in the United States.

HEARTILY APPROVED.

Everywhere the appeal for relief for the suffering women and children of Ireland has been met with kindly and generous response, and that Kentucky will do her full share is now assured. The press has lent much assistance, all in line with the New York Nation, which says in this week's issue:

"Right heartily we approve this week's drive on behalf of suffering Ireland. In view of the failure of the Red Cross to aid the destitute and suffering Irish there was nothing left for private beneficence but to go ahead. It was all nonsense to say that this is hutting into the private concerns of our ally and that it is another clever scheme to drive a wedge in between England and ourselves. Ireland's troops will destroy creameries and lay waste towns and burn and slay right and left, besides creating complete business unsettlement and much unemployment, she has no right to protest against any one who yields to the humane desire to succor the victims of this dreadful civil war, which has already done $200,000,000 damage. The desire to aid is not to be controlled by any preconceived notions as to who is wrong and who right in the struggle, nor will it wait upon an inquiry as to exactly who is to blame, any more than Mr. Hoover stopped to ask questions in Belgium. It is enough that Ireland slowly perishes; that this last week as every other brings news of bloody reprisals, of death in ambush and on the road, of the midnight assassin on both sides. No effective way to peace is yet in sight. If it came tomorrow it would still be a duty and a privilege to help relieve the crying suffering for which British militarism bears the chief burden.

The campaign will continue until March 31, and if any there are who have not yet contributed they should forward their subscription to the Rev. John O'Connor. Monday the Louisville Finance Committee forwarded $13,000 to National Treasurer J. J. Pulley, New York City.

IRELAND'S APPEAL FOR AID.

The sad plight of Ireland has excited the sympathy of the civilized world. Never in her long history has she witnessed such misery, sorrow and physical suffering as these later months have brought her.

Men, women and children, left homeless and destitute, make their heartfelt appeal to the conscience and kind offices of mankind. The distribution of food in Ireland is in charge of the Society of Friends (Quakers) and will be distributed regardless of sect or creed.

Please make cheques payable to Rev. John O'Connor, 2927 South Fourth street, Louisville, Ky.

The Electric Company

More Fitting Than the "Gas Company"

There were gas works in Louisville long before electricity became the greatest labor, time and money saver in existence, and therefore many people refer to the Louisville Gas & Electric Company as the "Gas Company."

Nowadays, however, the amount of work performed for citizens by the electric power and lighting system is very much larger than the services performed by the gas facilities, important though these services are.

Both electricity and gas are cheap in Louisville. About the only way by which the relative proportions of the two services can be estimated is by contrasting the total amount of gross revenue paid for each.

An estimate of this kind shows that 70 per cent. of the total gross business of the Company is done by the Electrical Department and 30 per cent. by the Gas Department. The volume of services rendered by both departments increases steadily, but the growth of the city's electrical demand is at a much more rapid rate.

The figures given below represent the total electrical output for each of the last few years:

1920.....	108,118,350 Kilowatt Hours
1919.....	85,783,790 Kilowatt Hours
1918.....	74,620,649 Kilowatt Hours
1917.....	61,564,395 Kilowatt Hours
1916.....	54,316,160 Kilowatt Hours
1915.....	47,658,424 Kilowatt Hours

Future growth of the electrical business, according to the calculations of our engineers, will be even greater than during the past, based on the normal average growth of the city. Electrical demands increase more rapidly than the increase in population.

Investment in an industry whose business grows rapidly and steadily from year to year is safe.
